

It's time now for campus news

Campus News Tuesday, October 24 10 55

The subject of Mrs Kennedy's lecture Thursday, October 26 ~~isssss~~ is "Titian in Rome". At 8 p.m. in Graham Hall she will speak at a meeting of the Archaeological Society, illustrating how art is a living force. This is a subject on which Mrs Kennedy is preparing a book.

#####

Student council has announced the appointment of the head of Charity Ball. She is Joan Kennedy, 1951. The dance which will be held sometime after Christmas is the only dance of the year which members of all four classes can attend. The proceeds of the dance will go to Service Fund.

#####

Recreational Council has plans to celebrate Halloween this Friday, October 27. From 8 to 10 30 p.m. in Davis students center to ~~yssss~~ there will be ~~apssss~~ a party, which everyone with or without dates is invited to come to. The evening's program includes ~~fortune~~ fortune telling, bobbing for apples and refreshments. If you want to come in costume, for there will be a prize for the best one.

#####

This Friday, October 27 Hillel plans to have Miss Anita Ascher, assistant professor of German speak to the group. Her talk which will be given at 7 15 pm in Studes will be on "Impressions of Israel".

#####

Tomorrow evening The Royal Philharmonic Orchestra directed by Sir Thomas Beecham will give a concert in John M Greene. This appearance is part of a 2 month's tour of some 50 concerts.
This presentation tomorrow is the first in the series of 5 concerts in the Smith College Series.

#####

REVERSE BOND
ELECTRICITY
RAG CONTENT

Sunday evening, ~~7~~October 29 a song recital will be presented by Anna Hamlin, soprano and John Hanks, Tenor. They will be accompanied by Leland Hall ~~ense~~ at the piano. This is the second in a series of three recitals of German Songs and Lieder <sup>from</sup> ~~of~~ the 18th to 20th centuries. The program includes works by Jensen, Franz, Rubinstein, Schumann, Grieg and Brahms. The recital will take place Sunday at 8.30 in Sage Hall.

Sunday evening, October 23 a song recital will be presented by Anna Hamlin, soprano and John Hanks, Tenor. They will be accompanied by Roland Hall organist at the piano. This is the second in a series of three recitals of German songs and lieder of the 18th to 20th centuries. The program includes works by Jensen, Franz, Schubert, Schumann, Grieg and Brahms. The recital will take place Sunday at 8:30 in Sage Hall

WINDY
OCTOBER 23
SUNDAY